RIZAL PROVIDES BI-WEEKLY DEFAULT STATUS REPORT

June 19, 2019 - Vancouver, British Columbia – Rizal Resources Corporation (TSXV: RZL) (the “Company”) is providing this bi-weekly default status report in accordance with National Policy 12-203 Management Cease Trade Orders. On April 18, 2019, the Company announced that, for reasons set out in its news release of April 18, 2019, the filing of its annual financial statements, its related management’s discussion and analysis and CEO and CFO certifications for the financial year ended December 31, 2018 (collectively, the “2018 Annual Financial Statements”) would not be filed by the prescribed deadline of April 30, 2019.

On May 2, 2019, the British Columbia Securities Commission, as principal regulator, granted a temporary management cease trade order (the “MCTO”). The Company expects to complete and file its 2018 Annual Financial Statements on or before July 2, 2019.

Under National Policy 12-203, the Company must file bi-weekly default status reports in the form of further news releases during the period of the MCTO. There is no material change regarding the information contained in the Company’s news release of April 18, 2019. The Company confirms there is no failure by the Company in fulfilling its stated intentions with respect to satisfying the provisions of the alternative information guidelines under National Policy 12-203, and there is no actual or anticipated default subsequent to the default announced in the Company’s news release of April 18, 2019. The Company also confirms that there is no other material information concerning the affairs of the Company that has not been generally disclosed as of the date of this news release.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RIZAL RESOURCES CORPORATION
